JUDAIZED GENTILES

A CURSE TO CHRISTIANITY AND THE WORLD

Gentile "Jews"

The "Judaized Gentile" is one of the types of our times. Sometimes he seems more Jewish than the Jews. Yet he is not a convert to the Jewish religion, but rather to Jewish apostasy. The Jews in whose company he is found are Freudian and Marxian. They say, "Marxism is the modern form of Jewish prophecy." In fact, it is the Jewish form of "Modernism," of secularized religion which no longer believes in God. The modernist, either Jewish or Christian, is an "end of the era" man, having indeed a form of godliness but denying the power thereof. The Judaized Gentile, like the apostate Jew, regards the ancient Jewish religion as a quaint old-time thing, to which a certain lip-service may be given, but in which no sophisticated modernist really believes.

The Judaized Gentile knows a few trick words of Yiddish. He is always a liberal. He is also a rascal. He probably has a good old English name and lives in a house or apartment crammed with "Early American" furniture. He has nothing but contempt for "Early American" political ideas, however, he likes Hepplewhite furniture, but not the Constitution. He believes in "One World." It is all very well to collect Early American furniture, he thinks, but he also believes in liquidating the American Republic and incorporating it into a World State. He is a persistent saboteur of the native American popular culture. If he runs a book publishing house, he publishes only Jewish authors; he hates every manifestation of the American native popular culture. He is vocal in his support of minorities; he has nothing but contempt for the American majority.

There are times when I suspect that the Jews really have lost control of their racket, that it has fallen into the hands of Judaized Gentiles. This may not be quite true; it is difficult to tell whether it is true or not. True Judaism, that is to say a sincere belief in the old Jewish religion, is really quite a rare thing today. "Modernism" has engulfed Judaism just as it threatens to engulf Christianity. Do any of these modern religious quacks really know the meaning of Monotheism, or are they become such lickspittle lackeys of secular interests that they do not even know the meaning of religion? Among the blunted religious sensibilities of our day, the worst rascals of apostate Judaism and apostate Christianity mingle together and strive mainly to please the money power of New York, rather than the ancient of days. They whoremonger deliciously together. And on their forehead a name is written: MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

One of their greatest abominations is Marxism. There is no proletarian revolution. There has never been any proletarian revolution. There will never be any proletarian revolution. Yet the whoremongering intelligentsia have kept the world busy arguing about a non-existent "revolution" for a hundred years. The phoney "Communists" prattle about utopia; the phoney anti-Communists point fingers at the working class, at alleged "conspirators." They point their fingers at everybody except the money men of New York who are the real backers of World Marxism.

The world is coming to the end of the "ideological age." In the near-term historical future, the world will return to the ancient military and religious realities. It will make no difference what your "opinion" of these matters may be. We are coming to the end of the age of mere "opinion." The "opinions" peddled by the mass media today are so asinine that it is an insult to ask an intelligent man to believe them, or even to disbelieve them. Why should we take them seriously at all? They are like the gibbering of idiot children. Nevertheless, there are great evils behind this idiocy. When we try to describe the evils, we are prompted to borrow Biblical language: "the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication." This pretty well describes the so called "intellectual world" of our day. Intellectual integrity is quite unknown in the intellectual world of New York, the center of the "One World" conspiracy. It is all harlotries and abominations. For a hundred years, the Communist parties of the world have talked a good game of love for the poor; yet when the mask is torn away, we see them whoremongering with the international bankers. They whoremonger deliciously with the great harlot who sits upon the many waters. They are liars, dogs, and murderers.

What is called "the conspiracy" is really an amalgamation of the worst of the apostate Christians and the worst of the apostate Jews working together. Their "disbelief" is not based upon a quest for scientific truth, but rather upon a yen for rascality and evil. They whoremonger with the true accomplishments of man, which spring from the consciousness which a love of God shaped and made aware. They pose as the guardians of "progress," when in fact they represent forces of retrogression and despair. The apostates who whoremonger with the spiritual treasures of mankind are simply the "end man" type; their appearance marks the end of an era, and it will be necessary to liquidate their influence in the world before something really noble and worthy can be reborn. Actually, their plans for the world are nihilistic and self-liquidating. What sort of men are they? They are the kind of men described in the third chapter of the book of Timothy in the Bible: "Know this, that in the last days dangerous times will come. Men shall be lovers of self, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, truce-breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of the good, traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than of God, having a form of Godliness but denying the power thereof . . ." This is the great archetype of decadent and bankrupt historical trends in the consciousness of mankind. These are the people you see everywhere today: The judges you see sitting on the judicial bench with bribe money in their pockets; the Communists who preach "proletarian revolution" and draw $100,000 a year from the New York money machine; the anti-Communists who shadowbox with a non-existent "proletarian revolution," but never, never, never point a finger at the men who spent a half-billion dollars to bring off the October revolution. They are the Christian clergymen who talk of an "accommodation" with Marxism. They are the Jews who have substituted Freudian-Marxism quackery for the greatness of monotheism. From such men, what can you expect? They are incapable of significant action. They can only move toward a state of non-existence. They talk of "peace" but they are at war with God.

The reality which they seek to evade is defined in the first verse of the St. John gospel. This is the original and basic reality from which all other reality is derived. The wise men of all great nations for six thousand years have known this in one way or another; but the funny little men who rule the world today know it not.

The funny little Gentiles who try to be oh-so-Jewish may well outnumber real Jews in the intellectual and political cesspools of our time. Our intellectual life today is dominated by the worst elements which decadent Judaism and apostate Christianity can provide. They are indeed "conspirators" of a kind; but they are also hopelessly incompetent because an element of sanity is missing from them; they are not well-oriented to reality. Their computations and plans go wildly astray. Why? "All men are vain in whom there is not the knowledge of God. . . ." This was true when it was first said by the prophet; it remains true today.

MARTIN LUTHER KING--JUDAIZED GENTILE

EXPONENT OF AGITATION, APOSTASY AND ANARCHY

M. L. KING Expendable More Useful Dead Than Alive

By HOUSTON La GARDE

The death of M. L. King was an odious event, the repercussions of which have only begun to make themselves felt in our subverted and strife torn land. It is the contention of this newspaper that Luther King was cut down by the same sinister clique of international conspirators, the same faceless manipulators of naked power, who killed President Kennedy. King was killed, as was Kennedy, in order to create a martyr-figure with which to shore up the collapsing world of "liberal democracy." The liberal democratic state built as it is upon philosophical absurdities and moral perversion, cannot stand without a constant influx of bigger and better lies, usually of a maudlin and sympathy-provoking variety e.g. "The Six Million."

Some day, perhaps in the near future, the entire insane structure will come tumbling down, but right now we Americans are faced with a rapidly decaying society assaulted from below by a mob of frenzied looters and arsonists and from above by the intellectual mafia of Jewish academic shysters who are pumping our students full of drugs, treason and ideological poisons.

What relation does this have to the murders of King and Kennedy? Simply this: M. L. King and J. F. Kennedy were both abject slaves of the Communist-Zionist conspiracy. Every day of their political lives was given over to fulfilling the program of this devious plot against humanity. When both became more valuable dead than alive, they were brutally disposed of. If this is how they treat their friends what can we, the vast majority of Americans of all races, expect from these fanatics whose age-old hatred of the rest of humanity is the root cause of all the horrors that have tortured this world for the past two centuries.

Consider first the assassination of Kennedy: Prior to the assassination, Kennedy was growing unpopular. The Bay of Pigs fiasco, the brutal, tyrannical invasion of the University of Mississippi combined with the ludicrous, regal posturing of the Kennedy clan in general and the vacuous, vacant staring Jacqueline in particular had left a bad taste in America's mouth.

That Kennedy was merely a rich fop who had made a terrible botch of the Presidency was all too apparent to his unseen masters. His murder was followed up with a publicity campaign unique even in the sordid annals of the American press. The fact that it succeeded in placing the blame for the assassination on the "right wing," despite Oswald's communist record, is an appalling testimonial to the political credulity of the American people, even more appalling than the fact that an obvious failure like JFK has been elevated into a veritable saint.

Much the same technique is discernible in the King affair. King was killed with a rifle as was Kennedy. Both were shot down in a southern city noted for its distaste for "civil rights." In both cases the assassins were mysterious creatures — and both disappeared: one killed by a strange Jew; the other, an elusive composite of photos and records, who has not yet been found and who may never be, if indeed such a person exists at all.

Why then was King killed? Simply because he had ceased to be of any use — that is, alive. His messiah image had faded badly of late. Ridiculed by the militants whose doctrine of overt violence represents a more advanced stage of the conspiracy than the covert violence of King's pacifism, barred from the Johnsonian seances in the White House by virtue of his opposition to the Viet war, King was reduced to playing second fiddle in the peace movement to such astounding paladins as "Diaper Rash" Spock and "Clap-trap" Coffin the chief dervish at Yale. His idiotic "poor people's march" on Washington had all the makings of a giant flop and King himself, lusting and biting rabidly after publicity, was making a monumental fool of himself by his pompous entry into a garbage man's strike in Memphis. Clearly Martin L. was descending fast, and if allowed to continue, might have caused tremendous embarrassment to his masters.

Let us stop briefly to shed some light on King's character. He was in all honesty rather dim-witted. He understood in a vague manner that he was part and parcel of a greater conspiracy; but where that conspiracy began he did not know, and where it led he did not care just as long as glory and honor, influence and fame bathed him in their spotlights. Freely churning up a mixture of Christianity and Marxism, King came to imagine himself an amalgam of the Holy Spirit and Karl Marx. In brief, a fraud of epic proportions but a fraud blessed with the capacity for stirring up half-wits — not southern negroes or white workers, mind you, but rather these soft heads of democracy: the dogooding suburban housewives, the hair-brained pedagogues who abound in our schools, the social workers, the mitred buffoons and clerical hacks who have turned Christianity into a miserable bedbuggism of stale slogans out of Karl Marx by "The National Guardian" and all the other damned fools who dream their preposterous dreams and drool and whimper over every blood-spotted criminal who raises his head from out of the gutter and howls for "rights and revolution." Such people are the stuff of decadence and to them King's ponderous oratory was not the same old left bosh absurdly emitted and defectively conceived but rather wisdom of an occult and fabulous kind. To them he was a saint. To us who know his record of cooperation with communists and Zionists he was at best a montebank and at worst a conscious enemy of American freedom.

Following are a few highlights from his career.

M. L. King has either been a member of, or wittingly accepted support from over 60 Communist fronts, individuals and/or organizations which give aid to or espouse Communist causes.

King attended the Communist training school, the Highlander Folk School at Monteagle, Tenn., and speaking at the 25th anniversary of Highland, on Labor Day weekend, 1957, stated: "I have long admired the noble purpose and creative work of this institution. For 25 years you have given the South some of its most responsible leaders in this great period of transition."

It is well known, and fully documented in the F.B.I. files that King was a car thief and operated an extensive car theft ring. (Cong. Record, March 30, 1966). The same files contain documentation on King's personal moral turpitude, his communist connections and the Soviet money he received.

IN THE MUD BECAUSE THE PIG LIKES IT." - - Abraham Lincoln.

REJECTS THE VIRGIN BIRTH

"What set Jesus apart, he believes, was Jesus' unique goodness. 'I don't think anyone else can be Jesus. He was one with God in purpose. He so submitted His will to God's will that God revealed His Divine plan to man through Jesus.'"

"In this sense, says Dr. King, Jesus was divine. But Doctor King rejects the virgin birth of Christ as literal fact. The early Christians, he says, had noticed the moral uniqueness of Jesus; to make this uniqueness appear plausible they devised a mythological story of Jesus' biological uniqueness." (National Observer, Dec. 30, 1963).

From the above we can see that M. L. King was no saint and no hero. It was unfortunate that he was murdered, for murder is wrong. But if peace is ever to come to this tortured land the records of all servants of the Zionist conspiracy must be exposed to the light of day, particularly one who has left a legacy of violence.

EPITAPH TO M. L. KING

FROM THE FIERY CROSS

Dr. Martin Luther King came to power preaching "non-violence," he won the Nobel peace prize for "non-violence," he has been praised highly by many leaders of this country for his "non-violence," and yet, this non-violent person has left this nation in a state of anarchy unmatched in her history. Chaos, blood, lawlessness and violence lie in the wake of Dr. King's reign.

It matters not who they pull forth to punish for his assassination, for he died when his leaders proposed for him to die. His purpose was to divide the people . . . mission accomplished. His purpose was to create factions of hate throughout the country . . . mission accomplished. His purpose was to create strife, unrest, civil disobedience, riots, bloodshed and much violence . . . mission accomplished. And last of all his purpose was to create confusion amidst hate and sympathy and to give the black man a red martyr during this an election year . . . mission accomplished.

Never before in history has there been such evil all personified into one man, and for certain, the evil that this man did sow we will be reaping for many years to come. It is of no consequence that his skin was black, for black or white, he possessed what few men in history have ever possessed, and that is a heart blacker than the color of any man's skin.

This notorious traitor has delivered his people into the hands of the devil while preaching of love and peace.

This is your epitaph Dr. King, and may God have mercy on your soul!

Prominent Negroes on M.L.K.

"But neither directly nor indirectly has Dr. King made any contribution to world (or even domestic) peace. Methinks the Lenin prize would have been more appropriate for him, since it is no mean feat for one so young to acquire 60 communist front citations . . .

"This is a tribute to Dr. King's mentors: CPUSA member Hunter Pitts Odell and former Young Communist League alumni and professional pacifist; Bayard Rustin, generalissimo of the March on Washington. They coached their protege assiduously for years. It is all in Uncle Sam's books. Rustin won additional distinction by being jailed for homosexuality in Los Angeles after delivering a rousing speech at a big church rally.

"Dr. King's principal contribution to world peace has been to roam the country like some sable typhoid Mary, infecting the mentally disturbed with perversion of Christian doctrine and grabbing fat lecture fees from the shallow-pated.

"His incitement packed jails with Negroes and some whites, getting them beaten, bitten and firehosed, thereby bankrupting communities raising bail and fines, to the vast enrichment of Southern 'law'n order.'

"With his omnipresent henchmen, Dr. King persistently entered cities (Albany, Ga., Birmingham, Ala., and St. Augustine, Fla.) after local Negro leadership had begged them to get lost. In none of them was anything gained.

"After this 'non-violent' crash program ended with crashing store windows and rifling of goods, the Reverend Doctor joined other self-styled Negro leaders in suspending all demonstrations. He was one of the engineers of the midsummer madness in Mississippi which ended not in peace but in arrest, arson and murder. Instead of improving race relations, they were worsened by these pixilated endeavors."

George Schuyler, outstanding Negro journalist, feature writer for North American Alliance and former editor of Pittsburgh Courier.

"Already he has become an international authority. He is trying to tell the Negroes why these rebellions and everything else are taking place in other parts of the world, without realizing that a lot of this is communist inspired, and a lot of it is inspired by ambitious men who are seeking power in various areas, etc. This (King's) explanation is the same explanation as the Communist Party. This is the Communist Party explanation. I wonder who is giving him the party line . . . ?"

Manning Johnson, Negro, once an official in the C.P. (Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities, Louisiana, Subversion in Racial Unrest, Part II, Page 205).

"The mystery, Negro leaders say privately, is why King assailed the United States as 'the greatest purveyor of violence in the world today' and heaped on his country virtually all the blame for the death and destruction in Vietnam—this despite that he had been warned privately about some of his advisers and begged by other civil rights leaders not to link Vietnam to the Negroes struggle for equality."

Carl Rowan, Negro, April 14, 1967, Cong. Record, April 17, 1967.

"The NAACP, CORE, SNCC, Martin Luther King and Aaron Henry are using us for their own personal gain. While they have grown rich and famous, the Negro masses grovel in frustration and reap the ill will created by these leaders and organizations.

" . . . How long will we let Martin Luther King cause innocent Negro children to be used and killed needlessly? He and the NAACP must share responsibility for the death of the Birmingham children . . ."

Jessie Gillespie, Negro Publisher, Mid-South Informer Walls, Mississippi.

"The more is given, the less the people will work for themselves. And the less the work, the more their poverty will increase."

BEHOLD THE "GREAT SOCIETY"

Prominent Whites on M.L.K.

"But whatever may have been the provocations . . . no man or any group or race of men, can be permitted in a government of laws, to take the law, or what they think ought to be the law, into their own hands, for that is anarchy, which always ends in chaos."

Justice Whittaker, of Chicago (on King's lawlessness) from FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin, 9-66, Page 13.

"Ours is an age of lawlessness and irresponsibility when leaders travel thousands of miles across our country to organize activities which must result in bloodshed and violence and speak of their responsibility — not to law and society — but only to a higher law."

O. W. Wilson, Superintendent of Police in Chicago. From "Civic Responsibility," Nov. 14, 1966 Page 4, (In reference to Martin L. King).

"It is just as unacceptable for a clergyman to sit in on someone else's property as it is for a father to buy forged documents to shield his son from the draft."

Senator Roman Hruska, (U.S. News and World Report, June 20, 1966).

"In view of King's attitude and his continued criticism of the F.B.I. on this point, I consider King to be the most notorious liar in the country."

J. Edgar Hoover, (U.S. News and World Report, Nov. 30, 1964).

Joseph Alsop has stated that King's "organization has accepted and is almost certainly still accepting communist collaboration and even communist advice."

"For several years as a seminarian I was in charge of a Negro mission. I am as anxious as anyone to see the Negro progress. But I cannot understand how Catholic people and especially priests and nuns, can continue to back such groups as SNCC and CORE. Or get behind such persons as Martin Luther King. They are disloyal to their country and traitors to their people. Surely the Negroes in America deserve better leadership than this."

Rev. Daniel Lyons, S.J. Congressional Record, May 4, 1967, P. H5094.

M.L.K. and Non-Violence

The F.B.I. files quote King as telling a group of leftwing students: "We don't need to talk mean, we need to act mean."

From The Allen Scott Report.

"The worst chaos, hatred and violence any nation has ever encountered."

M. L. King predicting what he knew his proposed march on Washington would bring about.

George Schuyler Column.

A little publicized UPI story appeared in the Feb. 2, 1965 Evening American (Phoenix) revealing a "master plan" for the civil rights drive in Alabama. The plan, "confirmed as genuine by two of King's top lieutenants," said "arrests should continue over months to create interest in the freedom registration and freedom vote." Anticipating King's arrest, it said "After Dr. King is in jail, a letter dealing with bombings, violence, not being represented, etc., should be distributed to Negroes in Alabama . . ." This type of tactic lays bare the so-called "non-violence" practiced by King and his Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The private files of this peace-loving Nobel Prize winning agitator are now in the hands of segregationists. The files contain personal correspondence of top-level members of the Martin Luther King organization and the source of financing for his demonstrations, riots and racial agitation (who ever heard of peaceful riots!) Some of the papers show a close financial link with known communists and include plans for King's proposed "Negro Freedom Army."

From Heads Up, May, 1963.

King's advocacy of civil disobedience "is the language of rebellion and anarchy."

AFFIDAVIT

I, Karl Prussion, a former counterspy for the Federal Bureau of Investigation from 1947 to 1960, do hereby swear under oath and under penalty of perjury, that from the years 1954 through 1958 I attended five county committee meetings of the Communist Party of Santa Clara County, California. (A county committee meeting of the Communist Party consists of one delegate representing each Communist cell in a county.) The meetings were held during the aforementioned period in the following locations:

The residence of Robert Lindsay, Communist, in San Jose, California, 1954; the residence of Mary Field, Communist section organizer, Palo Alto, California, 1955; the residence of Isobel and Edwin Cerney, both Communists, Menlo Park, California, 1956; the residence of Gertrude Adler, Communist, Palo Alto, California, 1957; the residence of Karl Prussion, counterspy for the F.B.I., Los Altos, California, 1958; the residence of Myra White, Communist, Mountain View, California, 1959.

I hereby further solemnly state that at each and every meeting as set forth above, one Ed Beck, Communist, who is presently secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People of San Mateo County, California, and a member of the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), presented the directive from the district office of the Communist Party in San Francisco to the effect that:

"All Communists working within the framework of the NAACP are instructed to work for a change of the passive attitude of the NAACP toward a more militant, demonstrative, class struggle policy to be expressed by sit-ins, demonstrations, marches and protests, for the purpose of transforming the NAACP into an organization for the achievement of Communist objectives."

I further swear and attest that at each and every one of the aforementioned meetings, one Reverend Martin Luther King was always set forth as the individual to whom Communists should look and rally around in the Communist struggle on the many racial issues.

I hereby also state that Martin Luther King has either been a member of, or wittingly has accepted support from, over 60 Communist fronts, individuals, and/or organizations, which give aid to or espouse Communist causes.

The Big Burial

By RUDY SIMPSON

Those who in all probability murdered Martin Luther King, Jr. are burying him today for the propaganda and political mileage that prompted their killing of him. There is little if any reason to believe that this was not a liberal political execution, another "inside job" like the Atlanta Temple Bombing (the big takeover kickoff) and the Kennedy Assassination.

With the return of warm weather, rioting on a national scale was to resume anyway, as threatened over and over, but now the liberals can blame the riots on King's assassination. The Democrat Party was splintering and dissolving with disunity, and George Wallace was looming large and formidable as a figure of sense and sanity. Now the liberals can unite the Democrats again with massive sieges of propaganda inferring that conservatives, segregationists and George Wallace are behind King's death. They can also push more of their monstrous, totalitarian bills through Congress.

The international bankers and gangsters who are the hierarchy of liberalism will be "hurting" for more money when their Vietnam War source dries up, so they must push new bills through Congress for vast, fresh sums of money (the taxpayers') to be appropriated in order for them to get their hands on it.

The question is will liberalism's dupes ever wake up to what is going on and how they are being used by the criminally insane and cunning money barons who own and control most of the politicians, all of the mass communication media, big business and big labor. The only way they can wake up is to undertake the painful process of thinking for themselves, and this is a lot to expect when it is so much easier and more profitable (for the short time being) simply to be indoctrinated with the hierarchy's propaganda that daily saturates the TV and radio networks, the press, movies, pulpits, textbooks, etc., ad infinitum.

Some Americans still have the ability to think for themselves. They never lost it. The only thing that will save the nation is for many other Americans to regain the ability to think for themselves. Television is the primary cause of this loss of ability, and of course radio, the press, the motion picture industry and other media of mass communication play major roles in the weakening of American mentality and perspective.

The mass communication media are not owned and controlled by average or poor Americans, but by the very wealthy. The American people do not even know the identity of these money barons, but only because they are not interested in finding out, and have not the faintest conception of their wealth. Too many Americans have forgotten that freedom is everybody's responsibility and that the price of freedom is eternal vigilance. The big money barons and international bankers are multi-billionaires. Who could be so naive and unthinking as to fail to realize that these are the powers that control politics, government, industries, the mass communication media, and even organized labor? Who, indeed, but most of the American people!

Yes, undoubtedly the liberal hierarchy killed M. L. K., and now they are burying him and propagandizing the whole nation. They are the hypocrites, the traitors, the principalities and powers. These exemplars of hypocrisy are defined in the dictionary as those who act false parts and make false professions, and hypocrisy is defined as the false pretense of moral excellence, either as a cover for actual wrong, or for the sake of the credit and advantage attaching to virtue.

Cicero defined such treason and traitors as these principalities and powers exemplify in these immortal words: "A nation can survive its fools, and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within. An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for he is known and he carries his banners openly. But the traitor moves among those within the gate freely, his sly whispers rustling through

BIRDS OF A FEATHER

"POOR" PEOPLE'S MARCH AND CONGRESSMAN RARICK

Without doubt, the most ominous manifestation of the current Marxist-led Black Revolution is the so-called "Poor" People's March on Washington. If our only concern were the farcical aspect of the demonstration, since everyone knows the real poor will not benefit in the least, it would be bad enough. As the program develops, we see that the entire idea was conceived in bitterness and is strictly a vicious "hate whitey" demonstration. It is part of the revolution and it means bloodshed. Will LBJ hold off another 20 hours before he moves to stop arson and murder?

Here in Washington the revolutionists have taken over. This defiant and unlawful takeover gives every indication of breaking out into serious violence. Martin Luther King said it would. The words of Rev. Virgil Wood of Boston, speaking at the recent Newark demonstration, shatters any hope even the most gullible may have entertained about the non-violence of King and his March. Said Reverend Wood: "I defy any white man to ask the poor if they're going to be non-violent? We are no longer non-violent. We are soul force—the soul force of Jesus Christ, Mahatma Gandhi and Martin Luther King Jr."

The redoubtable Congressman John Rarick of Louisiana, already the recipient of several attempts on his life because of his patriotism, is incensed because the government failed to act and deliberately let people get murdered in the recent Washington looting, aftermath of the King assassination. We quote a recent speech addressed to Congress:

"Hundreds of thousands of Americans want to know why some 20 hours elapsed in Washington, D.C. before the federal troops were called to offer an image of concern over the wholesale burning and looting.

"I feel strongly that the House owes a duty to every American citizen to ascertain why, in the federal District of Columbia, the headquarters of the government of all our people, immediate effective action was not taken to protect life and property. For this reason I am today introducing a resolution calling for an investigation of this matter by a Select Committee to be composed of members of both parties appointed by the Speaker."

So that we may still have the right to live, let us back Congressman Rarick in every way. The March may result in violence far worse than that which broke out immediately after King's death.

all the alleys, heard in the very halls of government, and he appeals to the baseness that lies deep in the hearts of all men. He rots the soul of a nation; he works secretly and unknown in the night to undermine the pillars of a city; he infects the body politics so that it can no longer resist. A murderer is less to be feared."

Suggestion from a Reader Welfare for Anyone

... Suppose pressure were put on Congress to amend the present welfare laws in such a way that anyone can get on welfare, aid to dependent children or work for the Federal Government in some capacity; but, when they do, they come off the voting rolls. This could start with say June of 1968 and in effect would forbid anyone to vote in any calendar year in which he has received ANY government money. This would halt the welfare receivers voting for more and more welfare. It would halt the steady march of the Federal Government into private tax paying businesses, and it would prevent the economy from going into a tailspin as would happen if the welfare programs were suddenly halted.

ANARCHY VS. CHRISTIANITY...

"The Jew and his bank are today the masters of all Europe—of Education, of Civilization, of Socialism: of Socialism above all, by means of which the Jew is going to tear up Christianity by its roots and destroy its civilization. And when nothing but Anarchy remains the Jew will put himself at the head of all. For while propagating Socialism among all the Nations, the Jews will remain united among themselves; and when all the wealth of Europe is dissipated there will still remain the Jew's Bank." ... Dostoevski in 1880. (From "DEMOCRACY or SHYLOCRACY")

EXCERPTS FROM "THE INTERNATIONAL JEW"

By HENRY FORD SR.

Why discuss the Jewish question? Because it is here. The Jewish question has existed in the United States for a long time. Jews themselves have known it, even if Gentiles have not.

This is the partial record of an investigation of the Jewish question. The motive of this work is simply a desire to make facts known to the people.
